

I 次の英文を読み、設問に答えなさい。

(1)[visited / one / Pisa / the / I / was / cities / of] first in Italy. It is one of my favorite Italian cities. But I was (2) love with Pisa even before I saw it.

You see, I used to dream about it when I was a boy. I read about the famous building (3)(call) the Leaning Tower of Pisa. But when I read the word (4), I was thinking of (5). I thought it was a place to buy pizza at. It must be the best (6) in the world, I thought. If it is so famous it must really be delicious. Many years later I finally saw the Leaning Tower. I knew then that it was (7) and not (8). But there was still (9) special about it for me. The tower got its name because it really (do) lean to (11) side. Some people want to try to fix it. They are afraid it may fall over and they do not like the way it looks.

I do not think it is a good idea to try to fix it. The tower probably will not fall down. It is 600 years old. Why should (12) happen now? And, if you ask me, I like (13) it looks. I like the way it leans over the city. To me it is a very human kind of leaning. (14) is perfect, it seems to say. And (15) cares? Why do people want things to be perfect? Why should the tower stand up straight? Imperfect things may be more interesting. Let's take the tower in Pisa. Why is it so famous? There are many other older, more beautiful towers in Italy. But Pisa's tower is one of the most famous. People come from all over the world to see it.

I am one of those people. After my first visit, I returned many times. And every time, I liked it just as much. I still think of pizza when I hear the word Pisa. But that is not (17) I like the city and its tower. They are special for me in the same way (18) Italy is special.

イタリアはたくさん問題をかかえていると私に言うアメリカ人が多い : the trains are never on time, the telephones do not always work, the streets are not always clean. Things are not perfect at all. "Why don't the Italians fix all of them?" they ask. But that is (19) I like about Italy. It is old and imperfect and very human.

II 次の会話文を読み、以下の設問に答えなさい。

Andrew: Hey, Jim! (1) on your new job. Well done!

Jim: Thanks, Andrew.

Andrew: Are you looking forward to it?

Jim: Yes, a lot, but you know, it's always difficult moving to a new country.

Andrew: Oh, I'm sure you'll be fine.

Jim: Well, look, you've lived in Sri Lanka, haven't you? (A), I wanted to ask you for some advice.

Andrew: Sure, go ahead.

Jim: What do I need to take?

Andrew: Well ... you can ⁽²⁾ get most things out there, so you don't really need to take much with you. You can get really cheap clothes there, you know, cotton shirts and trousers. Shoes are more difficult.

できるだけ何足も靴を持っていくように勧めます。 Umm ...

Jim: So do you think I need to take a coat or jumper with me or (3)?

Andrew: No, no. It's really hot, really, really hot out there, but I guess you'll need a jacket or jumper to wear if you go up into the hills or anything, (B) it can get a bit cool in the evenings, but in the city it's pretty hot all year round.

Jim: How much did you pack when you went there?

Andrew: Not much, hardly anything. I took one small suitcase with me, with just a few clothes. When I came back, I had loads of stuff ... (C) when I went, I tried to take as little as possible. I did take quite a lot of books, but in fact it's very easy to get English books there, so you don't need to take any.

Jim: Anything else you (4) think of?

Andrew: Yes, take a couple of spare pairs of glasses, just in case yours get lost or stolen.

Jim: Is it safe?

Andrew: Oh, it's quite a safe place ... be careful with your money, and your camera, and things like that, just like (5). But people are very friendly, (D) it's a very busy place, so even at night, there are people around, walking about, selling food.

Jim: What's the food like?

Andrew: Very hot, and there's lots of rice! There's lots of fresh fruit, fantastic fruit, all kinds of different bananas, long ones, short ones, mangoes, papayas, coconuts ... you'll be OK if you're careful, most places are very clean, you won't have any problems.

Jim: So [anymore / there's / about / worry / nothing / to]. (E) I'm beginning to feel ⁽⁶⁾ (7). I can hardly wait!
